Pikeville, Ky., April 1—Will Kelly and Harkins Kelley, brothers, alleged moonshiners and deserters, were brought here under heavy guard and placed in jail charged with the murder of Tilden Moore, a blacksmith, at Shelby Gap, near Jenkins, Ky., yesterday.

They began a disturbance there which resulted in Moore being badly wounded. He was rushed to a hospital at Jenkins, where he died two hours later.

The Kelleys understood to escape across the Virginia line, but were followed by a posse headed by Jake and Beverly Moore, two brothers of the victim. In the encounter Beverly Moore and both of the Kelleys were badly wounded. On arrival here the prisoners had to be carried before the court, one carrying bullets in his neck and back, while the other's leg was so badly shattered that amputation will be necessary, it is said.

Wilson Will Not Seek

The Third Term

Will Woodrow Wilson seek a third term? is a question uppermost in the minds of the people today. The following Washington dispatch to the New York Times throws some light on the subject:

According to a person who is in a position to know, President Wilson stands with the former Presidents of the United States who were opposed to a third term. It is said today that those closest to the President knew that he did not intend to seek a third term or use the power of his office to dictate the nomination of his successor.

It was declared that a leading member of the Democratic National Committee has stated that President Wilson, who is now in control of the party machinery, would not relinquish it by announcing his intention to retire at the end of the term. To do so, it was pointed out, would plunge the party into bitter factional warfare at the San Francisco convention and prevent the President's friends from dictating the party platform. While it is not the purpose of the President to seek nomination it is his purpose, it is said, to largely mold a platform and write into it the issues which he thinks the Democratic candidate must support.

In support of the assertion that Mr. Wilson intends to retire at the end of the term it is declared that Vance McCormick, of Pennsylvania, former Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, satisfied himself to become associated with the campaign of Attorney General Palmer for the Presidential nomination. Mr. McCormick is regarded as being as close to the President on political matters as any man in the party. The President selected him as manager of the last Presidential campaign, and the friendship that grew up then has continued. Men familiar with the situation believe Mr. Wilson informed Mr. McCormick of his attitude on a third term before Attorney General Palmer entered the race.

Mr. Palmer also is credited with being familiar with the President's views. In a letter written on February 5, 1913, 27 days before Mr. Wilson was inaugurated, the latter wrote Mr. Palmer, then a member of the House, his views on the proposed Constitutional amendment limiting the President's tenure to a single term of six years. It was the President's opinion, which caused defeat of the amendment in the House. It was adopted by the Senate.

In February, 1916, when Mr. Wilson was about to seek re-nomination despite the single term plank in the 1912 platform, the letter was made public by Mr. Palmer with the consent of the White House. Several sentences in it show that the President approved of the American tradition against the third term.

Mrs. Burnam is supported by an all-star committee, Mesdames G. D. Simmons, Harvey Chenault, Will Arnold, A. J. Suit, Will Pales J. W. Smith, Waller Bennett, C. F. Chenault, A. K. McCown, Ballard Luxon, Elizabeth Simmons, Annie Richmond, Charles Douglas, Joe Boggs, G. G. Perry, Jonah Wagers, C. W. Cobb, Mattie Oldham, Louis Neale, Warfield Bennett and Miss Ree Rice.

The world and his wife will be there to join the merry throng and tote your family along. "Not every one is free to roam, happy, gay and free; Somebody's got to stay at home, somebody else—not me!"

SO EASY TO COMPLAIN

It's the easiest thing in the world to complain.

The grumbler can always find reason to whine;

One cloud in the sky is an omen of rain;

But why should we fret if the weather is fine?

Fault finding's the easiest thing we can do;

It's seldom that things can be rated at par;

But what the world's wanting of me and of you.

Is to try to be cheerful with things as they are.

There's many a flaw in the pleasures we plan;

There's many a thorn on the stem of the rose;

Life never makes perfect the pathway of man;

There are troubles to meet him wherever he goes.

The whiner can always find reason to whine;

The worst we can see when the best seems afar;

There are bound to be days when the sun fails to shine.

So try to be cheerful with things as they are.

It is easy to grumble and find fault and frown.

It is easy to criticize, murmur and moan.

The cynics can tell what is wrong with their town.

And the seethers are ready with tongue and with pen;

But here's to the man with the courage to see

The joys which exist, not the failings which mar;

Who looks for the best and is trying to be

Contented, and cheerful with things as they are.

should save you money on your grocery purchases. Our method eliminates waste, useless expenditures and disappointment. Our prices will be right and the grocery necessities please. Doubtless some of our prices will be met by others and occasionally some specials may be run lower, if so, the general public will be the winner. We believe the general plane of grocery prices has been reduced since announcement of our self-serve a few weeks ago and we believe there will be further reductions. If this is done, even though we get but a small share of the patronage, we will have rendered a real service to the general public.

Our plan is built to reduce the price and at the same time only furnish the highest class of well known and nationally advertised merchandise.

Our success will depend on our ability to make this practical and useful—to serve the most people for the least cost. Although we are not quite ready we are waiving further repairs for the moment and opening to the public.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

With Kentuckians at Resorts in Florida

The following special to the Sunday Courier-Journal will be of interest to Richmond tourists, many of whom spend the winter season near Tampa. It says: Kentucky tourists wintering at Eustis have formed a live organization, which promises to participate in the social activities of the winter colony at that Lake County resort. The Kentucky-Eustis Club, as it is named, was organized in the Eustis Board of Trade rooms, A. D. Miller acting as temporary chairman, and Miss Allie Moore as secretary. Permanent officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. T. S. Kennedy; vice president, C. D. Miller; secretary-treasurer, W. H. Clay; board of directors, Mrs. J. C. Hughes, Miss Jane Edwards and Miss Allie Moore. A picnic will be held soon. Kentucky wintering at Clearwater enjoyed a fish fry on Clearwater beach early in the week. Baskets laden with good things to eat supplemented the fresh sea food. Refreshment and bathing was enjoyed.

What You Have Been Looking For

FAMILY FINISHED SERVICE will receive our special attention beginning Monday, April 5th. We will make a special price on this class of work at 15 cents per pound.

FAMILY FINISHED SERVICE means everything ironed and returned to you fresh and clean, ready to put on. Shirts, collars, handkerchiefs, dresses, sheets, towels, spreads, etc. are included in this class and are weighed together. It can readily be seen that the cost will be very little more when everything is figured than you are now paying. The added comfort when you patronize us will mean much more than the added expense.

We also do semi-finished work. That is we wash everything, iron the flat pieces such as sheets, spreads, towels, etc., starch what pieces are necessary and dry the balance. This leaves only a small portion of the ironing to you.

Try us one week and be convinced.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

She writes further: "I am in splendid health... can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.
